

Lunch with the Author Rebecca Price Janney

Wednesday

April 18 at noon

Doors will open at 11:30 am

Janney is the author of Easton at the Forks, the story of Erin Miles, a present-day widowed mother, whose search for her ancestors leads to a special connection to Peter Kichline. Like Erin, Peter is widowed, and he is trying to run a household while tracking down a thief in colonial Easton. As Peter's narrative unfolds, you'll recognize many people and places from Easton's history.

A graduate of Lafayette College, Janney now resides in suburban Philadelphia with her husband and son. Her first published article appeared in Seventeen magazine when she was a senior in high school. Since then, she has written nineteen books and two youth mystery series in addition to many newspaper and magazine articles.

Easton at the Forks is available in paperback and on Kindle. Easton in the Valley, volume two of the Easton series, was published in 2017. Books will be available after the program for sale and signing.

Bring your lunch if you like. The Friends of the Library will provide beverages and desserts. Doors open at 11:30 am. The event is free and open to all. The Drake Room is handicapped accessible from Church Street. Light desserts and beverages will be provided. For details, call 610-258-2917 ext. 307.
